Armed Forces Day (AFD)

Students in military families are allowed one day of exempt absence upon deployment of the military parent and one day of exempt absence upon return from deployment of the military parent. Please click here for the AFD policy and the request form. The request form must be completed and submitted to the student’s principal and approved by the principal prior to the absence.

Armed Forces Rest and Relaxation Days(s) (AFR)

Students in military families are allowed up to ten days of exempt absences when the active duty parent/guardian stationed out of the country is granted rest and recuperation leave. Please click here for the AFR policy and the request form. The request form must be completed and submitted to the student's principal and approved by the principal prior to the absence. In addition to the request form, a signed statement by the commanding officer indicating name, rank, place of deployment, and dates of the military member's rest and recuperation leave must be submitted with the request.
